

Get More Done

Donlen Dealer Direct: A new way to cycle your vehicles with more proceeds going to your pocket.

Fleet managers are expected to lower costs, and control the total cost of ownership (TCO). What if you could access a brand new remarketing channel that not only is the most efficient in the fleet industry, but delivers returns greater than what you would see through the typical auction channels?

Now you can with Donlen Dealer Direct.

- Gain access to a broad buyer base of fleet-focused dealers throughout the country
- Realize higher returns for your vehicles
- Benefit from shorter days to sell
- Improve your TCO with a lower program cost

Supported by a team of over 100 dedicated sales people using our proprietary technology, your vehicles are promoted to dealers directly, bypassing the auction channel. Simple and productive, Donlen Dealer Direct is the most efficient dealer channel in the fleet industry.

Why use Donlen Dealer Direct?

The end result is quicker transactions and a greater return on the sale of your vehicles.
